

JANUARY

WITH THE HELP OF NEW TECHNOLOGY, NOAA'S NATIONAL WEATHER SERVICE IS CONSTANTLY IMPROVING ITS FORECASTING ACCURACY, PROVIDING EARLIER STORM WARNINGS AND SAVING LIVES.

THE WORLD'S TALLEST WAVE EVER RECORDED WAS 91-FEET TALL!

2

0

0

1

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
	1	2	3	4	5	6
	New Years Day		Perihelion, when Earth's orbit brings it closest to the Sun.
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
1971: A new state record for Arizona is set as the temperature near McNary, AZ, drops to -40° F.				1911: The temperature at Rapid City, SD, plunges 47 degrees F in only 15 minutes.
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
	1932: Los Angeles, CA, is hit by a record snow storm! Up to two inches of snow falls on the Los Angeles Basin.				1933: In just 24 hours, 60 inches of snow falls in Giant Forest, CA, setting a new state record and the second highest 24-hour total in the U.S.
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
			1969: Tornado rips through six counties of Mississippi, leaving a 95-mile-long track of destruction, killing 32 and injuring 241.	1916: Browning, MT, goes from 44° to -56° F in 24 hours, setting a U.S. record for the greatest temperature drop.
28	29	30	31
1922: The "Knickerbocker" storm drops a record 28 inches of snow on Washington, D.C., collapsing the roof of the Knickerbocker Theatre, killing 96 and injuring 133.			1911: Tamarack, CA, sets the U.S. record in January with 390 inches of snow for the month.

SCIJINKS.GOV